

[Roslyn is changing their numbering scheme for their addresses. The numbers in parentheses are the new house numbers, old house numbers are also still posted on most of the buildings.]

Maggie's First House

8 W. Washington Avenue. (107 W. Washington)

The empty lot to the right of this house is where the NX crew constructed a hollow building form in a similar shape as the actual house in order to simulate Maggie's house burning down in "Burning Down the House".

Maggie's Second House

Corner of E Street and Washington. (201 N. E)

Drive up 1st street past Pennsylvania and turn right on Idaho. All the way up the hill where the road dead-ends at "E" Street, turn right. Drive one short block to the corner of "E" and Washington and Maggie's (2nd) house is on the left corner, you will recognize the yard where the artifacts were found and re-buried.

Ed's Apartment Exterior

Proceed straight on "E", crossing the intersection. The next house on the left is the one that was Ed's house, note the outdoor stairs on the right side of the building. According to Dan Dusek, these stairs were constructed by NX crew members in order to make the house look like it had an upstairs apartment, and the owners simply left them there after filming ended.

Maurice's House

8 E Street. (103 N. E)

Proceed straight on "E" to the next house on the left, this is Maurice's house (who knew Ed and Maurice were really neighbors?). It is much smaller than you might have imagined, but you can recognize it by the deer antlers mounted below the roof peak. If the owner is outside, he is very friendly – lots of fans (including myself) have chatted with him, and he will tell you all sorts of stories about the filming.

Ruth Anne's House

12 5th Street. (103 5th Street)

The Roslyn street grid can be a little confusing – the easiest way to get to these streets is to follow the signs to the Roslyn cemetery (which is in the same general direction) from the western end of Pennsylvania Avenue. Note the herb garden at the front right corner of "Ruth Anne's" property, which was planted by the NX crew for Maurice to drive over in search of the fox that RA had foxnapped. The owner has left the herb garden there.

Marilyn's House

25 5th Street

This is located just down the street a bit from RA's house, on the opposite side of the street.

Cicely Community Church

This is no longer located at the place noted on the town maps – it was going to be torn down, so it was purchased and moved to a new location by the owners of Cicely's Gift Shop. To find it, follow PA Avenue east past KBHR on your left, pass the retirement community and one or two houses past that. The church is there on the left. When I saw it, it was still boarded up from the move to this location but clearly identifiable as the church from the show.

Cal's Violin Concert

Cicely Cotillion

Performance of "Bus Stop"

These and various other scenes were filmed in the empty warehouse behind Memory Makers at the corner of Pennsylvania and First.

Miranda's Baptism

Chris Destroys his Harley with the Pi Lady

Joel Watches the Sunset on Yom Kippur

Scenery of the River in "A River Doesn't Run Through It"

(These were all filmed at the same site)

[Note: as you are driving out of town, before you get to Ronald, on the right you will pass the house where Ed and Private Inv. Reynaldo conducted the stakeout of the woman they thought might be Ed's mother. Sorry, I don't have the address – but if you have a sharp eye and remember the scene, you will recognize it.]

1. Go north out of Roslyn on 903, pass through the small town of Ronald and watch for Winston Road on the left.
2. Turn left on Winston (gravel road) and go about 1/2 mile. This is the general area where Maggie, as Little Red Riding Hood, meets the big bad wolf.
3. Continue down this road about another .3 miles and watch for a little cement block building on the right; turn right at the building.
4. Follow this "road" about .4 miles in. Watch carefully for a path that turns off to the left from the main road that looks worn enough for cars, but don't turn there, just park and walk from here.
5. Follow this path about 200 feet -- the spot is on the right, and you will surely know it when you see it.

Ruth-Anne's Grave

Joel's Mother's "flying"

Jesse's Burial

(These were all filmed at the same site)

(Note: As you are driving from Miranda's baptism site to RA's grave, you will be following the Cle Elum river along your left side. Due to all the snow in the mountains this year, the water levels from melt-off are very high – but when the water levels were lower, some of these sections of rocky riverbed served as Manonash and as various fishing and riverside scenes from several episodes.)

1. Come back up from Miranda's baptism site the same way you went in, stop when you get back to North 903 and Winston Road. A right would take you back to Roslyn -- turn left and continue up 903.
2. It's about 8 miles up this road that you want to watch for "French Cabin Creek." "The road will be the first left after you pass "Cle Elum River Campground." There is a sign indicating French Cabin Creek, pointing to your left. Take it.
3. You are now on a gravel road and you should immediately see a sign for Thorp Lake and Knox Creek Trail. Drive over the bridge, up the grade and follow the road around to the left.
4. Approx. 2/10ths of a mile past the turn, at another Thorp Lake/Knox Creek sign, there is a road to the left. Take it. Drive up a short way till you see a path opening on your left - maybe 25-50 yards. You can usually pull right in to the opening of the path; if not, find a safe place to park on the side of the road.
5. It is a very short and easy climb to the site. Follow the path in and hike up the hill, following the path around to your left. Continue up to the second plateau. It's very safe, the path is almost like a stairway in the rocks.
